PHILIPP GORBACHEV & THE NAKED MAN

Naked Man is the Man of the Future

Equipped with classy instruments and influenced by a wide range of dancefloor and rave experiences, acrobatic Russian / Italian / French trio Philipp Gorbachev & the Naked Man shake up the global dance music scene with their singular Russian-inspired high-energy live outfit.

Led by Russian-born Philipp Gorbachev, who since his debut on Matias Aguayo's Cómeme label has been busy serving dance music audiences around the globe, the band premiered their show live at Boiler Room Berlin in June 2014. The short funky performance, dedicated to freedom and transparency, presented live versions of songs from Philipp Gorbachev's debut Silver Album, released on Cómeme in 2014.

Currently working on a live album for 2015, the band makes a point on pushing dance music leftfield – or eastwards – accentuating their music with lyrical work in the Russian language, using novel recording techniques to present live arrangements of banging electronics, and adding a good dose of flamboyant attitude to their on-stage appearances.
